Help & information

What will I be asked?

The first 40% or so of the survey has questions about your general wellbeing and life satisfaction.

Got a question, concern, comment, or technical problem?

Please don't hesitate to contact us.

- Email: info.en@toluna.com

The remaining 60% is about a wide range of other things that might be connected to your wellbeing. This part includes questions on: health & lifestyle, relation to nature, basic demographics (age, sex, employment, income, etc.), your home and local area, religion, politics, family background, and a few others.

What will you do with my responses?

We're looking at people's wellbeing in London and how this may be connected to a wide range of different factors. Once everyone has completed the survey, we'll use various statistical methods to see what their combined responses can tell us about these relationships.

If you're curious to see what we find, please come back from time to time. We'll make our findings available here—<http://www.wellbeingsurvey.org.uk>—as soon as they're ready. We also hope to present our findings in academic journals and conferences, and to make sure policy makers are aware of anything relevant.

In any case, we'll never show any individual's responses—only information at the group level.

Will you know who I am?

No. We don't ask for your name or contact information at any point. Some of the information we do ask for could in principle be used to help identify you, but we promise never to use it for this purpose, and we'll never disclose it to anyone else.

Is my information secure?

Yes. The survey is conducted over a secure https connection, the same kind used for online banking and shopping. The information you give will be stored on our secure computer systems, accessible only to us.

Who are you?

Life satisfaction of others

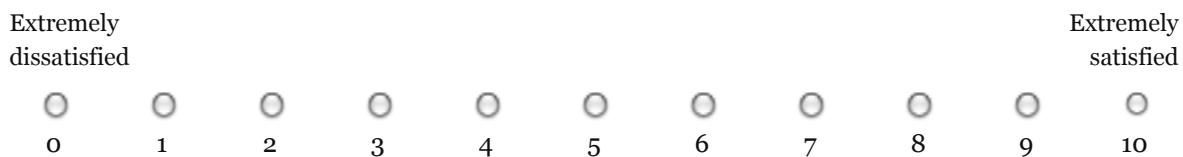

On this page we very briefly describe four people's lives. Please read the descriptions carefully, and try to imagine how satisfied with their lives these people might be.

There are no right or wrong answers—we'd just like to know your impressions based on the information given.

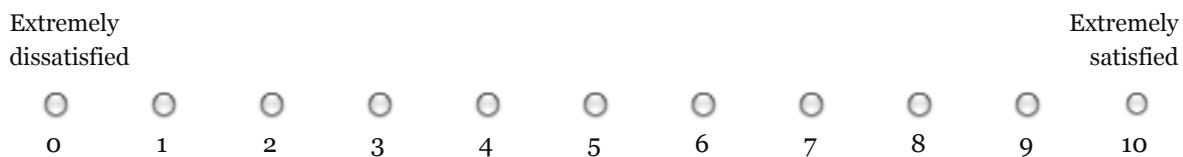

Sam is 33 years old. She got divorced 2 years ago, and during the week she looks after her 9-year-old son on her own. Sam earns £20,000 a year in a public sector job. She's in good health, and has a circle of close friends whom she sees fairly regularly.

How satisfied with her life as a whole do you think Sam is?

Liz is 58 years old. She's married, with two grown-up children, and works for a large, successful firm. She and her husband have a combined income of £200,000 a year. They entertain or go out with friends once or twice a week, and take several holidays a year. Liz is close to her family, and looks forward to seeing more of her grandchildren when she retires.

How satisfied with her life as a whole do you think Liz is?

Stephen is 42 years old. He's single, and has no children. He makes £70,000 a year in a professional job, but some colleagues have recently been laid off and his position isn't secure. Outside work Stephen watches a lot of television, and sees friends for a drink about once a month. He's slightly overweight, and carries an inhaler for his asthma.

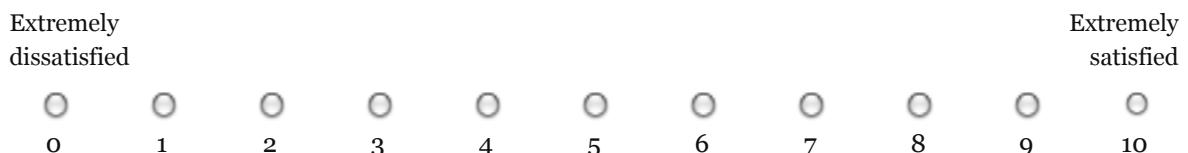

How satisfied with his life as a whole do you think Stephen is?

Rajiv is 25 years old. He's married, without children, and works full-time from home. Between them, he and his wife bring home £40,000 a year. They go out with family or friends most weeks. Rajiv keeps in good shape, and plays football most weekends.

How satisfied with his life as a whole do you think Rajiv is?
